

Directions to Barbican House

From the A59

From the A64

Once on the A64, keep on that road until you come to the SELBY and YORK A19 slip road (don't follow the "A19 - THIRSK" sign which is before the SELBY sign). Once on the A19 proceed north passing through Fulford and look out for the Army Barracks on the right. Then follow the fork right sign for Hospital. This will take you along Cemetery Road. The name changes to Barbican Road after the first set of traffic lights. Barbican House is approximately 100 yards further on and is on the right hand side immediately before the next set of traffic lights.
